

STATE OF MICHIGAN

Executive
Office

Jennifer M. Granholm
Governor

On behalf of the citizens of Michigan, I, Governor Jennifer M. Granholm hereby proclaim the week of November 14, 2005, as

International Education Week

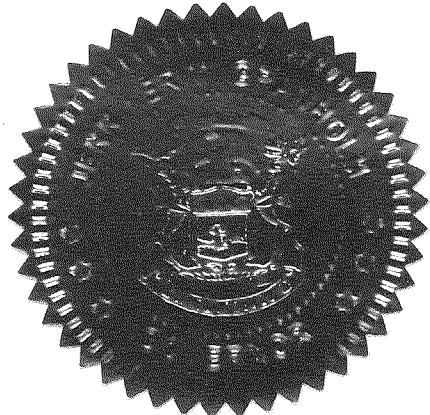

Whereas, International education and exchange include thousands of programs, public and private, campus-based and national, that promote the sharing of ideas and experiences across borders; and,

Whereas, The programs include study abroad programs, citizens and scholarly exchanges, foreign students on U.S. campuses, area and foreign language studies, and global approaches to U.S. education; and,

Whereas, There are currently 22,000 foreign students studying at Michigan colleges and universities; and,

Whereas, It is important to recognize the significant impact international education has on our lives and in our communities and to promote international educational exchanges as a way to enhance mutual understanding and acceptance; and now therefore be it,

Resolved, That I, Jennifer M. Granholm, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of November 14, 2005, as International Education Week.
